Deadline: Ongoing / Not specified

Location: South Africa

Heribert Nasch Foundation Degree Studies Bursary

Heribert Nasch Foundation is accepting applications for 2025 academic year Degree Studies bursaries.

Bursaries will be awarded for studies within ANY field, towards an Undergraduate degree, Master's degrees or a second degree. The bursary will fund studies at the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) or the Durban University of Technology (DUT).

The Heribert Nasch Bursary Programme, founded by the Nasch family from Germany, is a groundbreaking effort aimed at empowering academically talented students from disadvantaged communities.

So far, the initiative has provided sponsorship to 105 students, enabling them to overcome financial obstacles and pursue their educational goals. By offering extensive financial assistance and mentorship, the programme serves as a critical support system for individuals with exceptional potential but limited resources.

The bursary will provide cover for the following expenses: full tuition fees, accommodation, and meals. Students will also receive cover for textbooks, laptops, and a monthly allowance of R1 000 to assist with personal expenses.
