

Sun International Marketing Internships 2025 / 2026

Sun International Marketing Internships 2025 / 2026

Deadline: Ongoing / Not specified

Location: Sandton, South Africa

Sun International Marketing Internships

The Sun International Head Office is offering an exciting internship opportunity for a Marketing student looking to gain practical work experience. The selected intern will be exposed to various areas of marketing support, coordination, event management, and client engagement in a fast-paced and professional entertainment and gaming environment.

Areas of Exposure

- Client engagement and event coordination
- Organising site visits, meetings, and presentations
- Handling bookings and reservations using internal systems
- Gathering client feedback and identifying future business opportunities
- Liaising with customers and stakeholders regarding logistics and communication

Minimum Requirements

- Grade 12 / Matric
- Currently studying towards a Marketing qualification
- Internship must be a requirement to complete the qualification
- Valid South African ID

Skills and Competencies

- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to build and maintain professional relationships
- Planning and organising skills
- Ability to multitask with attention to detail
- Comfortable working with confidential information
- Engaging and professional behaviour

How to apply

To apply, visit Sun International careers portal.

Preference will be given to candidates from designated groups in accordance with the Employment Equity Act and Sun International's internal employment equity plans.