

Apply for Transnet Bursaries 2026

Transnet invites South African youth to apply for the Bursary Programme 2026.

Bursary Application Closing Date: 6 October 2025

Study Location:

South African Universities (Engineering Fields)

Bursary Type:

Full-cost bursary (tuition, accommodation, meals, books)

About the Transnet Technical Bursary Programme 2026

Are you a high-achieving student with a passion for engineering and a desire to help build South Africa's infrastructure? The Transnet Technical Bursary Programme 2026 could be your gateway to a rewarding career with South Africa's leading freight logistics company.

Transnet is committed to developing future technical professionals by providing bursaries to deserving learners and students in critical engineering disciplines that align with the company's strategic goals.

Fields of Study Covered

The bursary supports BSc or BEng degrees in the following disciplines:

- Electronics Engineering
 - Electrical Engineering
 - Industrial Engineering
 - Metallurgy Engineering
 - Mechanical Engineering
-

Who Should Apply?

Grade 12 Learners:

- Currently in matric or already completed Grade 12
- Achieved a minimum of 60% (Level 5) in English and relevant core subjects
- Intending to study one of the above engineering fields at a recognised South African university

Current Tertiary Students:

- Already enrolled in one of the above engineering programmes at a South African university
 - Maintaining strong academic performance
-

Bursary Benefits

- Full financial coverage: tuition, accommodation, meals, books
 - Structured mentorship and guidance
 - In-service training and workplace experience
 - Career development opportunities within Transnet after graduation
-

Eligibility Criteria

Applicants must:

- Be South African citizens under 25 years old
 - Have excellent academic results (Grade 12 or university level)
 - Be accepted or enrolled at a recognised South African university in one of the supported engineering fields
 - Be passionate about contributing to South Africa's infrastructure and logistics sector
-

How to Apply

Click here to apply for the Transnet Technical Bursary Programme 2026: Apply Now